

DATE:

Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: INVITATION TO THE 9TH ANNUAL COECSA SCIENTIFIC CONGRESS ON 21ST SEPT – 23RD SEPT 2022 TO BE HELD IN LILONGWE, MALAWI.

On behalf of the College of Ophthalmology of Eastern, Central and Southern Africa (COECSA), it is my pleasure to invite you to the 9th Annual Scientific Congress of the College which will be held at Bingu Wa Mutharika International Convention Centre (BICC) in Lilongwe, Malawi from September 21st to 23rd, 2022.

The Annual COECSA Congress has served as a leading forum for the exchange of ideas, knowledge and information relating to ophthalmology in the Eastern, Central and Southern Africa (ECSA) region. This year's event is being hosted by Ophthalmology Society of Malawi (OSM). With a strong focus on the unique challenges and emerging opportunities facing eye care, particularly in Sub-Saharan Africa region, this year's theme is: "Quality Eye Care Amidst a Pandemic".

The detailed program and agenda for the congress shall be shared in due course. Further, kindly note that COECSA shall not cater for all in-country costs related to Airport transfer, Accommodation and Ground Travel.

We look forward to your attendance and participation in what promises to be the ophthalmic event of the year!

Yours sincerely,

Josiah O Onyango

Chief Executive Officer-COECSA
